Bio:

Andrea Maizes is an executive transition coach, former Chief Human Resources Officer, and author of Your Next Edit. After more than 30 years leading global HR organizations, she now helps high-achieving professionals navigate one of life's most underestimated transitions: life after major success.

Andrea works with founders, CEOs, and senior leaders navigating retirement, reinvention, and leadership transitions — with a focus on the identity and purpose shifts traditional planning often overlooks.

She is the author of Your Next Edit, a practical guide to designing meaningful next chapters, and the creator of The Next Edit newsletter. Her work has been featured in CEOWORLD Magazine and on podcasts focused on leadership transitions, reinvention, and life after success.

Andrea brings a rare combination of executive experience and deeply human insight to conversations about identity, achievement, and what comes next.

“Your Next Edit” :30 Thought-Provoking Exercises to Build the Retirement of Your Dreams. Find it HERE

Retirement isn’t the end. It’s an edit.

After more than 30 years in executive leadership, Andrea Maizes discovered what many high achievers eventually face: success prepares you to climb the ladder, but not to transition and land when you jump off.

Her book, Your Next Edit, helps accomplished professionals navigate life after the title — with practical tools to rethink identity, structure, and purpose in the next chapter.

Instead of treating retirement as an ending, Andrea reframes it as an intentional redesign: Keep what works. Let go of what doesn’t. Build what’s next.
